

Graham Benson Smith: Acrylics for All

Sunday 8 July 2018 (10am – 4pm)

Workshop Outline

In this workshop you will produce an acrylic painting on canvas.

The goal is to complete a finished painting in one day, so it is recommended that the canvas you use is not very large.

If, however, you are confident and work fast, you may wish to bring along two relatively small canvases to work on.

The tutor will supply hair dryers to dry the work and therefore enable you work quickly.

Materials:

- Large container for water
- A rag for cleaning brushes
- Mixing tray, eg plastic plates, preferably white for accurate colour mixing.
- A HB pencil, for quick drawing of your subject.

Brushes:

- Small for detail work, in medium round or flat
- Large round or flat pallet knife if you have

Paint colours: White, Red, Blue, Yellow, Green, Dark Brown. If you have more colours, bring them along too.

About Graham Smith

Graham Smith is a self-taught artist, born in Adelaide in 1950. He likes to work in watercolour, acrylic pen & wash & pastel.

He has painted and drawn for as long as he can remember and finds he gets great satisfaction from showing others how satisfying it is to produce something they can be proud of.

He has taken classes with well-known artists such as Nan Muirhea, Arthur Phillips, Alvaro Castagnet (international artist) and Andres and Ivas Janson. He has won the Goolwa art exhibition prize for his work in watercolour & pastel. He has exhibited in the Port Adelaide Community Art Exhibition also SALA.

His works can be found in private collections in England, Canada, America, Australia including the late Governor Dame Roma Mitchell's private collection.

His favourite saying "... BUT JUST BEFORE YOU FINISH...!!!"
